

The "Laboratoire de Physique Théorique d'Oran" school on Particle Physics and Cosmology

Oran
Les Andalouses
02-10 May 2009

The "Laboratoire de Physique Théorique d'Oran" (LPTO) is organizing its second school, to be held from 02 to 10 May, 2009 in Oran, Algeria.

The school will be organized as follows:

The first three days (02-04 May, University of Oran Campus) will be devoted to introductory lectures on the standard model, supersymmetry, general relativity and gravitation for graduate students and young researchers.

The second part (05-10 May, Les Andalouses) will be an advanced school on the latest theoretical and experimental advances in particle physics and cosmology.

In addition to the lectures, there will be poster sessions where participants can present their work.
